

BABY SHOWER GAMES

ARE YOU THAT BABY?

Before the shower ask your guests to send you a photo of themselves as a baby. Print them all on a poster or add them to a slideshow. Have everyone write down their guess of who is who. Whoever matches the most guests to their baby pictures wins.

DON'T SAY BABY!

At the start of the baby shower, give everyone a fun hair tie and decide on a word that no-one is allowed to say. When a guest is talking to someone who says the word they take that person's hair tie and put it on their wrist. Whoever has the most hair ties at the end of the party wins.

BABY SHOWER SCRAMBLE!

Decide on a few baby words, then jumble up the spelling on a sheet of paper to create anagrams. Make a copy for each guest. Place a sheet of paper at every seat, and see how fast people can unscramble the anagrams. The person who figures out the most words in a minute wins.

NAME THAT SONG!

Type out a list of nursery rhyme snippets, leaving out key words and phrases, and make enough copies for all your guests, or, play small snippets of a nursery rhyme and ask your guests to fill in the blanks. The person who completes the most correctly wins.
