

TACKLING INJUSTICE TOGETHER

We see health differently. We tackle the causes and consequences of health inequity.

We tackle unfair power structures to challenge the real root causes of poverty and ill health. We work alongside affected communities and activist groups to expose global inequalities, and we offer solutions to the current system we live in that puts profit over people's health.